15 Sir:

In response to the Office Action of September 29, 2004, the applicant submits her Affidavit under Rule 131 and further amends the application as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

1. (Currently Amended) A case for enclosing a pillow comprising a first pocket and a second 20 pocket, each of said pockets having an opening defined by a rim at a proximal end and a closed section extending to an opposite end, the proximal end of the first pocket is independent of attachment to the second pocket, and the opposite end of the first pocket extends from a portion of the rim of the second pocket, whereby, a pillow can be inserted into one of the first pocket and the second pocket, 25 and said one of the first pocket and the second pocket with the pillow disposed therein can be inserted into and covered by the other of the first pocket and the second pocket to enclose the pillow.
